Report on One day workshop 'Understanding Intellectual Property Right and Role of Students' in Revised NAAC Process'

One day workshop entitled "Understanding Intellectual Property Right and Role of Students' in Revised NAAC Process" was organized by DKASC College under LEAD College Scheme on Monday, 20th January 2020. The workshop was organized for all the faculty members of this college and students, faculty members of the cluster. Over all 53 faculty members and 46 students had actively participated in the workshop.

Mr. Sagar B. Pol, Sagar B. Pol is an Assistant Controller of Patents & Designs, at Patent Office, Mumbai, Government of India and Prof. N.D. Sangale from Annasaheb Dange College of Engineering and Technology was the resource persons for the workshop. Both have conducted two sessions. Inauguration was carried out at the hands of Mr. Sagar B. Pol and in presidency of Principal (Dr.) R. R. Kumbhar.

In the beginning Mr. Sagar Pol enlightened audience with the history and need of IPR. Further he explained the different means to claim your right viz. patent, copyright, trade mark and trade secret. Subsequently he emphasized on the Indian scenario of Intellectual property system and some recent innovations and how did they come into existence. In the discussion session he interacted with all and answered questions until the satisfaction of the audience.

Prof. N. D. Sangale was resource person for third and fourth session. He emphasized on vision and mission of NAAC and students role in the revised NAAC process. He discussed with students the questions in students' satisfaction survey and explained several terms that they come across while answering question. In the discussion session he emphasized on different aspects of NAAC and students' participation in this is very important.

In the valedictory programme few faculty members and students put forth their views on the how important is to be aware of IPR and revised NAAC process. Certificates were distributed at the hands of Prof. N. D. Sangale to the outside participants.
