Report of the 'Women's Self-Defence' Programme

08/03/19

Economics & English Dept. organized a programme of 'Women's Self-Defence' on the occasion of 'International Women's Day'. This Day is celebrated all over the World on a large scale. The D. K. A. S. C. College, Ichalkaranji also celebrated it on behalf of Economics & English dept. Miss Udhira Pote, (MBA from Bangalore) & Miss Sayali Chivate (DME from SIT, Ichalkaranji) (both National Gold Medal Winners of Taekwondo and Referees) were invited on this occasion. Both of them demonstrated the art of Womens Self- Defence in a fine way. The students took good interest in their demonstration. Sayali expressed her opinion on this occasion that everyone must learn this art of Self Defence as it has become the need of time. She also focused on organizing the demo of self defence at least once a week.

On this occasion of International Women's Day Prin. Dr. Milind Hujare was in the chair. In his Presidential speech he expressed the need of learning and knowing the art of self defence. While talking about this special day he confidently expressed his view that women are now here inferior to men. The need is that they must know themselves and focus their attention on their aims and objectives. He reviewed the past of the movements of the women against their rights all over the world. He expressed his opinion that in comparison with China, the women of India are lagging behind in educational, social and economic achievements. He believed that women are a step ahead of men. It is necessary that they should be offered proper respect because where the women are respected that country proceeds further in its real meaning. Finally he expressed best wishes to all the women with better future.
