

Dattajirao Kadam Arts Science And Commerce College, Ichalkarnji, Kolhapur

History Department 2022-23

Class	Sem	Subject	Unit	Gender Awareness	Environment Awareness	Professional Ethics	Human Values
B.A. I	SEM. -I	PAPER - I Rise of Maratha Power (1600-1707)	1.Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's Achievement till 1664	- Women's roles: Analyzing sources for mentions of women's contributions to the Maratha empire.	- Geographical context: Studying how sources describe the environmental context of Maratha battles and expansions.	- Source authenticity: Evaluating the credibility and reliability of sources.	- Cultural values: Understanding the cultural values and traditions reflected in sources.
				- Gendered narratives: Examining how sources portray gender roles and relationships.	- Resource utilization: Analyzing sources for information on resource management and utilization.	- Interpretation objectivity: Recognizing potential biases in interpreting sources.	- Social hierarchy: Examining sources for insights into social stratification and values.
			2.Shivaji Maharaja's achievements till 1680	- Women's influence: Analyzing the role of women in Shivaji's early life and reign.	- Territorial expansion: Studying how Shivaji's expansions impacted the environment and resource utilization.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating Shivaji's leadership decisions and accountability.	- Courage and resilience: Understanding Shivaji's values of courage and resilience.
				- Gendered power dynamics: Examining how Shivaji navigated gendered power structures.	- Geopolitical context: Analyzing how geography influenced Shivaji's military strategies.	- Moral integrity: Examining Shivaji's actions through the lens of moral integrity.	- Social justice: Analyzing Shivaji's commitment to social justice and equality.
			3.Maratha War of Independence:	- Women's participation: Analyzing the role of women in Shivaji's coronation and expeditions.	- Environmental impact: Studying the environmental impact of Shivaji's military campaigns.	- Leadership responsibility: Evaluating Shivaji's leadership decisions and responsibilities.	- Visionary leadership: Understanding Shivaji's visionary leadership and values.
				- Gendered symbolism: Examining the gendered symbolism and implications of Shivaji's coronation.	- Resource management: Analyzing how Shivaji managed resources during his expeditions.	- Diplomatic ethics: Examining Shivaji's diplomatic actions and their ethical implications.	- Cultural pride: Analyzing Shivaji's commitment to cultural pride and preservation.
			4.Importances of Sources for Understanding of Maratha History:	- Women's roles in war: Analyzing the roles of women in the Maratha War of Independence.	- Environmental factors: Studying how environmental factors impacted the war.	- Military ethics: Evaluating the ethical implications of military actions.	- Patriotism: Understanding the values of patriotism and national pride.
				- Gendered narratives of war: Examining how gender influences the narratives of war.	- Resource utilization: Analyzing how resources were utilized during the war.	- Accountability: Examining accountability for actions during the war.	- Sacrifice and courage: Analyzing the values of sacrifice and courage demonstrated during the war.

A. K. K. K.
HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkarnji.

B.A. I	SEM. -II	PAPER - II Polity, Society and Economy under the Marathas (1600- 1707)	1.Polity:	- Women in governance: Analyzing the roles and influence of women in Maratha polity.	- Environmental impact of policies: Studying how Maratha policies impacted the environment.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating the accountability of Maratha leaders.	- Justice and equality: Understanding the values of justice and equality in Maratha polity.
				- Gendered power structures: Examining how gender shaped power dynamics in Maratha governance.	- Resource management: Analyzing how Maratha polity managed natural resources.	- Governance transparency: Examining transparency in Maratha governance.	- Loyalty and duty: Analyzing the values of loyalty and duty in Maratha governance.
			2.Economy:	- Women's economic roles: Analyzing the economic contributions and roles of women.	- Sustainable practices: Studying Maratha economic practices' environmental sustainability.	- Economic accountability: Evaluating accountability in Maratha economic practices.	- Entrepreneurship and innovation: Understanding Maratha values of entrepreneurship and innovation.
				- Gendered economic disparities: Examining economic disparities based on gender.	- Resource utilization: Analyzing how Maratha economy utilized natural resources.	- Fair trade practices: Examining fairness in Maratha trade and commerce.	- Social welfare: Analyzing Maratha economic policies' impact on social welfare.
			3.Society and Religion:	- Gender roles and expectations: Analyzing gender roles and expectations in Maratha society.	- Environmental impact of religious practices: Studying the environmental impact of Maratha religious practices.	- Social responsibility: Evaluating social responsibility in Maratha society.	- Social cohesion: Understanding Maratha values of social cohesion and community.
				- Women's religious roles: Examining women's roles and influence in Maratha religious practices.	- Eco-friendly traditions: Analyzing eco-friendly traditions in Maratha society.	- Religious tolerance: Examining religious tolerance and coexistence in Maratha society.	- Spiritual values: Analyzing spiritual values and their impact on Maratha society.
			4.Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj :Policy and Contribution.	- Gendered perspectives: Analyzing gendered perspectives in Maratha historiography.	- Environmental context: Studying the environmental context of Maratha history.	- Historical objectivity: Evaluating objectivity in Maratha historiography.	- Cultural preservation: Understanding values of cultural preservation in Maratha historiography.
				- Women historians: Examining contributions of women historians to Maratha history.	- Eco-friendly historical practices: Analyzing eco-friendly practices in Maratha historical	- Source credibility: Examining credibility of sources in Maratha history.	- Historical accuracy: Analyzing commitment to historical accuracy and truth.

Asvattale
HEAD,
Department of History,
D.K.A.S.C. College,
Ichalkaranji.

Dattajirao Kadam Arts Science And Commerce College, Ichalkaranji, Kolhapur.
History Department.

Class	Sem	Subject	Unit	Gender Awareness	Environment Awareness	Professional Ethics	Human Values
B.A.-II	SEM.- III	Paper No. III History of modern maharashtra (1900 to 1960)	1. Rise and Growth of Nationalism:	- Women's participation: Analyzing women's roles and contributions to the nationalist movement.	- Environmental impact of colonialism: Studying the environmental impact of colonial policies on Maharashtra.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating accountability of nationalist leaders.	- Patriotism and sacrifice: Understanding values of patriotism and sacrifice in nationalist movements.
				- Gendered nationalist narratives: Examining how gender shaped nationalist ideologies and discourses.	- Sustainable development: Analyzing how nationalist movements addressed sustainable development.	- Inclusive nationalism: Examining inclusivity and representation in nationalist movements.	- Social justice: Analyzing commitment to social justice and equality.
			2. Role of Maharashtra in the National Movement:	- Women's leadership: Analyzing women's leadership roles in Maharashtra's nationalist movement.	- Environmental concerns: Studying environmental concerns and initiatives in Maharashtra's nationalist movement.	- Regional representation: Evaluating representation and inclusion of Maharashtra in national movements.	- Regional pride and identity: Understanding values of regional pride and identity in Maharashtra's nationalist movement.
				- Gendered regional identities: Examining how gender shaped regional identities and nationalist sentiments.	- Resource management: Analyzing resource management and utilization during the movement.	- Collaborative leadership: Examining collaborative leadership and alliances in Maharashtra's nationalist movement.	- National unity: Analyzing commitment to national unity and cohesion.
			3. Social Movements:	- Women's empowerment: Analyzing women's empowerment and gender equality in social movements.	- Environmental justice: Studying environmental justice and sustainability in social movements.	- Inclusive activism: Evaluating inclusivity and representation in social movements.	- Social equality: Understanding values of social equality and justice in social movements.
				- Gendered social change: Examining how gender shaped social change initiatives.	- Eco-friendly activism: Analyzing eco-friendly practices and activism in social movements.	- Ethical activism: Examining ethical considerations and accountability in social movements.	- Collective action: Analyzing commitment to collective action and community.
			4. Samyukta Maharashtra Movement:	- Women's participation: Analyzing women's roles and contributions to the Samyukta Maharashtra Movement.	- Environmental impact of linguistic division: Studying environmental impact of linguistic division and reorganization.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating accountability of leaders in the Samyukta Maharashtra Movement.	- Linguistic and cultural identity: Understanding values of linguistic and cultural identity in the Samyukta Maharashtra Movement.
				- Gendered linguistic identities: Examining how gender shaped linguistic and regional identities.	- Sustainable development: Analyzing how the movement addressed sustainable development.	- Inclusive movement: Examining inclusivity and representation in the movement.	- Regional autonomy: Analyzing commitment to regional autonomy and self-governance.

Axattale
HEAD,
Department of History,
D.K.A.S.C. College,
Ichalkaranji.

SEM.- IV	Paper No. V History of modern maharashtra (1960 to 2000)	1.Leaders:	- Women in leadership: Analyzing women's representation and roles in leadership positions.	- Environmental policies: Studying leaders' environmental policies and initiatives.	- Accountability: Evaluating leaders' accountability and transparency.	- Visionary leadership: Understanding values of visionary leadership and foresight.
			- Gendered leadership styles: Examining how gender shapes leadership approaches and decisions.	- Sustainable development: Analyzing leaders' commitment to sustainable development.	- Ethical decision-making: Examining leaders' ethical considerations and decision-making processes.	- Empathy and compassion: Analyzing leaders' empathy and compassion in decision-making.
		2.Major Issues and Events:	- Gendered impacts: Analyzing how major issues and events affected women and marginalized groups.	- Environmental consequences: Studying environmental consequences of major issues and events.	- Crisis management: Evaluating professional ethics in crisis management and response.	- Resilience and adaptability: Understanding values of resilience and adaptability in responding to major issues and events.
			- Women's responses: Examining women's responses and agency in addressing major issues and events.	- Disaster management: Analyzing environmental disaster management and responses.	- Accountability: Examining accountability and transparency in addressing major issues and events.	- Social responsibility: Analyzing commitment to social responsibility and community welfare.
		3.Social Movements:	- Women's empowerment: Analyzing women's empowerment and gender equality in social movements.	- Environmental justice: Studying environmental justice and sustainability in social movements.	- Inclusive activism: Evaluating inclusivity and representation in social movements.	- Social equality: Understanding values of social equality and justice in social movements.
			- Gendered social change: Examining how gender shapes social change initiatives and movements.	- Eco-friendly activism: Analyzing eco-friendly practices and activism in social movements.	- Ethical activism: Examining ethical considerations and accountability in social movements.	- Collective action: Analyzing commitment to collective action and community.
		4.Educational Development:	- Women's education: Analyzing women's access to education and gender disparities.	- Environmental education: Studying environmental education and awareness initiatives.	- Educational accountability: Evaluating accountability and transparency in educational institutions.	- Knowledge and critical thinking: Understanding values of knowledge, critical thinking, and intellectual curiosity.
			- Gendered educational outcomes: Examining how gender shapes educational outcomes and opportunities.	- Sustainable education: Analyzing commitment to sustainable education and practices.	- Inclusive education: Examining inclusivity and representation in educational policies and practices.	- Empowerment through education: Analyzing commitment to empowerment through education and social mobility.

Ashtale
HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkaranji.

R.A.II	SEM.-III	PAPER NO.4 HISTORY OF INDIA (1757-1857)	1.Establishment of Company rule in India:	- Women's roles in resistance: Analyzing women's roles in resisting Company rule.	- Environmental impact of colonialism: Studying environmental impact of Company rule.	- Colonial accountability: Evaluating accountability of colonial administrators.	- National sovereignty: Understanding values of national sovereignty and self-governance.
				- Gendered colonial narratives: Examining how gender shapes colonial narratives and discourses.	- Resource exploitation: Analyzing exploitation of natural resources during Company rule.	- Ethical governance: Examining ethical considerations in colonial governance.	- Cultural preservation: Analyzing commitment to cultural preservation and identity.
			2.Making of a Colonial Policy:	- Gendered policy impacts: Analyzing how colonial policies affected women and marginalized groups.	- Environmental policy: Studying environmental considerations in colonial policy-making.	- Policy transparency: Evaluating transparency and accountability in colonial policy-making.	- Social justice: Understanding values of social justice and equality in colonial policies.
				- Women's agency in policy-making: Examining women's roles in shaping colonial policies.	- Sustainable development: Analyzing commitment to sustainable development in colonial policies.	- Ethical decision-making: Examining ethical considerations in colonial policy decisions.	- Human rights: Analyzing commitment to human rights and dignity in colonial policies.
			3.Making of a Colonial Economy:	- Women's economic roles: Analyzing women's contributions to colonial economy.	- Environmental impact of economic policies: Studying environmental impact of colonial economic policies.	- Economic accountability: Evaluating accountability in colonial economic practices.	- Economic empowerment: Understanding values of economic empowerment and self-sufficiency.
				- Gendered economic disparities: Examining economic disparities based on gender.	- Resource management: Analyzing management of natural resources in colonial economy.	- Fair trade practices: Examining fairness in colonial trade and commerce.	- Social welfare: Analyzing commitment to social welfare and poverty alleviation.
			4.Revolts against Company Rule:	- Women's roles in revolts: Analyzing women's participation and leadership in revolts.	- Environmental factors in revolts: Studying environmental factors and resource management in revolts.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating accountability of leaders in revolts.	- Courage and sacrifice: Understanding values of courage and sacrifice in revolts.
				- Gendered narratives of resistance: Examining how gender shapes narratives of resistance.	- Sustainable resistance: Analyzing commitment to sustainable practices in resistance movements.	- Ethical resistance: Examining ethical considerations and accountability in resistance movements.	- National pride: Analyzing commitment to national pride and self-governance in revolts.

Aswale
HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkaranji.

SEM.-IV	Paper No. VI History of Freedom Struggle (1858-1947)	1.Rise of Nationalism:	- Women's participation: Analyzing women's roles and contributions to the nationalist movement.	- Environmental impact of colonialism: Studying environmental impact of colonial policies on India.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating accountability of nationalist leaders.	- Patriotism and sacrifice: Understanding values of patriotism and sacrifice in nationalist movements.
			- Gendered nationalist narratives: Examining how gender shapes nationalist ideologies and discourses.	- Sustainable development: Analyzing commitment to sustainable development in nationalist movements.	- Inclusive nationalism: Examining inclusivity and representation in nationalist movements.	- Social justice: Analyzing commitment to social justice and equality.
		2.Gandhian Era:	- Women's empowerment: Analyzing Gandhi's views on women's empowerment and gender equality.	- Environmental sustainability: Studying Gandhi's emphasis on environmental sustainability and simple living.	- Moral leadership: Evaluating Gandhi's moral leadership and ethical considerations.	- Ahimsa and compassion: Understanding values of ahimsa (non-violence) and compassion in Gandhian philosophy.
			- Gendered Gandhian narratives: Examining how gender shapes Gandhian ideologies and discourses.	- Eco-friendly practices: Analyzing eco-friendly practices and initiatives during the Gandhian era.	- Non-violent resistance: Examining ethics of non-violent resistance and civil disobedience.	- Simple living: Analyzing commitment to simple living and self-sufficiency.
		3.Other Strands:	- Women's roles in other strands: Analyzing women's participation and leadership in other freedom struggle strands.	- Environmental impact of other strands: Studying environmental impact of other freedom struggle strands.	- Leadership diversity: Evaluating diversity and inclusivity in leadership of other freedom struggle strands.	- Courage and resilience: Understanding values of courage and resilience in other freedom struggle strands.
			- Gendered narratives of other strands: Examining how gender shapes narratives of other freedom struggle strands.	- Sustainable practices: Analyzing commitment to sustainable practices in other freedom struggle strands.	- Ethical considerations: Examining ethical considerations and accountability in other freedom struggle strands.	- Social cohesion: Analyzing commitment to social cohesion and unity.
		4.Communalism and Partition:	- Women's experiences: Analyzing women's experiences and roles during Partition.	- Environmental impact of Partition: Studying environmental impact of Partition and displacement.	- Leadership accountability: Evaluating accountability of leaders during Partition.	- Humanity and empathy: Understanding values of humanity and empathy during Partition.
			- Gendered communal narratives: Examining how gender shapes communal narratives and discourses.	- Resource management: Analyzing management of natural resources during Partition.	- Ethical considerations: Examining ethical considerations and accountability during Partition.	- National unity: Analyzing commitment to national unity and cohesion amidst communal divisions.

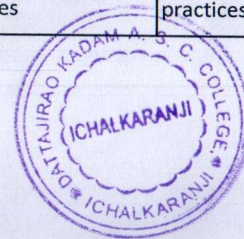

HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkaranji.

Dattajirao Kadam Arts Science and Commerce College, Ichalkaranji, Kolhapur.

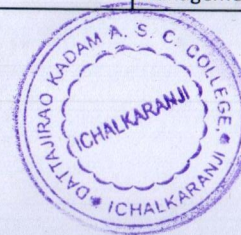

Department of History. 2022-22

Class	Semester	Subject	Unit	Gender Awareness	Environment Awareness	Professional Ethics	Human Values
B.A. III	V	History	The Beginning	1. Gendered origins 2. Women's roles	1. Environmental context 2. Sustainable practices	1. Objectivity 2. Cultural sensitivity	1. Respect for diversity 2. Empathy
		PAPER NO. VII	2. : The Vedic Age and Epics	1. Gendered representation in Vedic texts 2. Women's roles in Vedic society	1. Environmental impact of Vedic rituals 2. Sustainable religious practices	1. Contextualization of Vedic texts 2. Avoiding cultural appropriation	1. Appreciation for Vedic contributions 2. Understanding of Vedic values
		Early India (from beginning to 4 BC	3. The Second Urbanization:	1. Gendered urban dynamics 2. Women's roles in urban societies	1. Environmental impact of urbanization 2. Sustainable urban planning	1. Accurate representation of urban societies 2. Inclusive historical	1. Recognition of urbanization's impact 2. Compassion for marginalized groups
			4. The Mauryan Empire:	1. Women's roles in Mauryan administration 2. Gendered power dynamics	1. Environmental impact of Mauryan policies 2. Sustainable governance practices	1. Critical analysis of Mauryan policies 2. Ethical considerations in	1. Admiration for Mauryan achievements 2. Critical reflection on Mauryan values
		PAPER NO.VIII
B.A. III	V	History of Medieval India (1206 to 1526)	1 Sources:	1. Representation of women in historical sources 2. Gender bias in source interpretation	1. Environmental context of medieval societies 2. Impact of human activities on medieval environment	1. Authenticity and reliability of sources 2. Objectivity in source analysis	1. Respect for cultural diversity in sources 2. Empathy in understanding medieval societies
			2. Major Rulers	1. Women's roles in royal courts 2. Gendered representation of rulers	1. Environmental impact of royal policies 2. Sustainable practices in medieval kingdoms	1. Critical analysis of ruler's decisions 2. Avoiding bias in historical narrative	1. Leadership qualities of rulers 2. Impact of rulers on social justice
			3. Administration and Economy (Delhi Sultanate and Vijaynagar)	1. Women's participation in administration 2. Gendered economic opportunities	1. Environmental impact of agricultural practices 2. Sustainable economic development	1. Objectivity in analyzing administrative policies 2. Accuracy in economic	1. Social justice in administrative decisions 2. Compassion in economic policies for marginalized groups
			4. Religion, Society and Culture:	1. Gender roles in religious practices 2. Women's participation in cultural activities	1. Environmental influence on religious beliefs 2. Sustainable cultural practices	1. Respect for diverse religious beliefs 2. Objectivity in analyzing cultural norms	1. Promoting tolerance and coexistence 2. Appreciation for cultural diversity

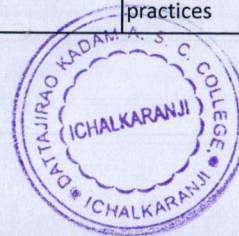

Department of History,
D.K.A.S.C. College,
Ichalkaranji.

		PAPER NO.IX
B.A. III	V	Age of Revolution	1: Reformation (16th Century)	1. Women's roles in reform movements 2. Gendered impact of religious reforms	1. Environmental influence on reform ideologies 2. Sustainable practices in reformed communities	1. Objectivity in analyzing reformers' motives 2. Contextualization	1. Promoting individual freedom and choice 2. Compassion and empathy in reform efforts
			2. : Industrial Revolution (18th Century)	1. Women's workforce participation 2. Gendered impact on families	1 Environmental degradation 2. Sustainable practices	1. Responsible representation 2. Avoiding bias	1. Workers' rights and dignity 2. Empathy for affected communities
			3.American Revolution (1776)	1. Women's roles 2. Gendered impact	1. Colonial expansion's impact 2. Sustainable resources	1. Objectivity 2. Contextualization	1. Liberty & equality 2. Indigenous rights & dignity
			4. French Revolution (1789)	1. Women's participation in revolution 2. Gender equality in new regime	1. Impact of revolution on rural environment 2. Sustainable urban planning	1. Unbiased representation of revolution 2. Contextualization of revolutionary	1. Promoting liberty, equality, fraternity 2. Protecting human rights and dignity
		PAPER NO.X
B.A. III	V	Political History of the Marathas	1.Political condition up to 1740	1. Women's roles in Maratha politics 2. Gendered impact of Maratha expansion	1. Environmental impact of Maratha military campaigns 2. Sustainable resource management in Maratha	1. Objectivity in representing Maratha history 2. Contextualization of Maratha political	1. Promoting social justice and equality 2. Recognizing human rights and dignity in Maratha rule
			2.Balaji Bajirao and Battle of Panipat(1761)	1. Women's influence on Bajirao's decisions 2. Gendered impact of war on Maratha families	1. Environmental impact of military campaigns 2. Sustainable resource management during war	1. Accurate representation of Battle of Panipat 2. Contextualization of Bajirao's leadership	1. Promoting courage and leadership 2. Recognizing human cost of war and conflict
			3.Political condition after 1761	1. Women's roles in politics 2. Gendered impact of instability	1. Environmental impact of expansion 2. Sustainable resource management	1. Objectivity in analysis 2. Contextualization of decisions	1. Resilience and adaptability 2. Human rights in instability
			4. Decline of the Maratha Power	1. Women's roles in Maratha decline 2. Gendered impact of political downfall	1. Environmental factors in Maratha decline 2. Sustainable resource management failures	1. Objective analysis of decline 2. Contextualization of leadership failures	1. Learning from Maratha resilience 2. Recognizing human cost of decline

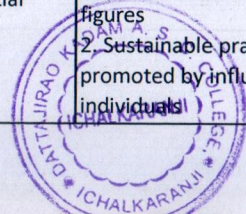

Handwritten Signature
HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkaranji.

		PAPER NO. XI
B.A. III	V	History Its Theory	1. History: Definition and Scope	1. Inclusive representation of historical narratives 2. Gendered perspectives in historical analysis	1. Environmental context in historical events 2. Sustainable approaches to historical preservation	1. Objectivity in historical representation 2. Contextualization of historical sources	1. Promoting empathy through historical understanding 2. Recognizing human experiences in history
			2 Acquisition of Historical Data	1. Avoiding bias 2. Inclusive representation	1. Sustainable methods 2. Eco-friendly preservation	1. Authenticity 2. Transparency	1. Respect for diversity 2. Cultural sensitivity
			3. : Process of presenting and writing history	1. Gender-sensitive language and representation 2. Inclusive portrayal of women's roles	1. Eco-friendly publishing practices 2. Sustainable storage of historical records	1. Objectivity and accuracy in writing 2. Proper citation and credit	1. Empathy and understanding in storytelling 2. Respect for diverse perspectives and experiences
			4. : Methods of History writing	1. Avoiding gender stereotypes 2. Representing women's agency	1. Considering environmental impact 2. Sustainable historical analysis	1. Objectivity and impartiality 2. Avoiding plagiarism	1. Promoting empathy and understanding 2. Respecting cultural heritage
		PAPER NO. XII
B.A. III	VI	Ancient India (From 4th BC TO 7 th AD	1.: Early Historic India	1. Women's roles 2. Gendered representations	1. Environmental impact 2. Sustainable practices	1. Accurate representation 2. Contextualization	1. Understanding social hierarchies 2. Recognizing cultural diversity
			2.The Classical Age	1. Women's participation in governance 2. Gender roles in ancient Indian literature	1. Impact of urbanization on environment 2. Sustainable architecture in ancient India	1. Objectivity in interpreting ancient texts 2. Contextualization	1. Understanding cultural achievements 2. Recognizing social and economic inequalities
			3.The Post-Gupta Period	1. Decline of women's rights 2. Gendered impact	1. Environmental degradation 2. Sustainable practices	1. Accurate representation 2. Avoiding biases	1. Understanding social changes 2. Recognizing human resilience
			4. Society and Culture	1. Gender roles and expectations 2. Women's status in ancient Indian society	1. Impact of environment on culture 2. Sustainable cultural practices	1. Objectivity in cultural representation 2. Contextualization of cultural practices	1. Understanding cultural diversity 2. Recognizing social hierarchy and inequality

Ashtale
HEAD,
 Department of History,
 D.K.A.S.C. College,
 Ichalkaranji.

		PAPER NO. XIII
B.A. III	VI	History of Medieval India (1526 to 1707)	1. Sources	1. Gender bias in historical sources 2. Representation of women in medieval texts	1. Environmental context of source creation 2. Sustainable preservation of historical sources	1. Authenticity and reliability of sources 2. Critical evaluation of source material	1. Understanding source perspectives and biases 2. Recognizing cultural and social context of sources
			2. Major Rulers	1. Gender roles in royal courts 2. Women's influence on medieval politics	1. Environmental impact of royal policies 2. Sustainable practices in medieval kingdoms	1. Objectivity in evaluating ruler's legacies 2. Contextualization of historical events	1. Understanding ruler's social and cultural impact 2. Recognizing human rights and dignity in medieval India
			3. Administration and Economy	1. Gender roles in administrative positions 2. Women's economic empowerment	1. Environmental impact of economic policies 2. Sustainable resource management practices	1. Accurate representation of economic data 2. Contextualization of administrative	1. Understanding social and economic inequalities 2. Recognizing human well-being in economic development
			4. Religion, Art and Architecture	1. Gender representation in art and architecture 2. Women's role in religious practices	1. Environmental influence on architectural designs 2. Sustainable use of resources in art and architecture	1. Accurate interpretation of religious texts 2. Contextualization of artistic and	1. Understanding cultural and religious diversity 2. Recognizing human creativity and expression
		PAPER NO. XIV
B.A. III	VI	Making of Modern World 16th to 19th century	1.: Glorious Revolution	1. Women's role in revolutionary movements 2. Impact of revolution on gender roles	1. Environmental impact of industrialization 2. Sustainable development in revolutionary era	1. Objectivity in interpreting revolutionary events 2. Contextualization of revolutionary	1. Understanding human rights and dignity 2. Recognizing social and political equality
			2. Nationalism	1. Women's role in nationalist movements 2. Gendered representation in national identity	1. Impact of nationalist policies on environment 2. Sustainable resource management in nation-building	1. Objectivity in interpreting nationalist ideologies 2. Contextualization of nationalist	1. Understanding inclusive national identity 2. Recognizing human rights and dignity in nationalist discourse
			3.: Imperialism	1. Gendered impact of colonialism on local populations 2. Women's roles in anti-imperialist movements	1. Environmental exploitation by colonial powers 2. Sustainable resource management in colonized	1. Objectivity in interpreting colonial histories 2. Contextualization of imperialist	1. Understanding cultural destruction and preservation 2. Recognizing human rights violations in
			4. Important Personalities	1. Gender roles and expectations of influential women 2. Impact of gender on leadership styles	1. Environmental consciousness of notable figures 2. Sustainable practices promoted by influential individuals	1. Accurate representation of historical figures' beliefs 2. Contextualization of personalities'	1. Understanding human motivations and flaws 2. Recognizing human rights advocacy by influential individuals

		PAPER NO. XV
B.A. III	VI	Polity ,Economy and society Under the marathas	1. Sources	1. Gender bias in Maratha historical records 2. Representation of women in Maratha sources	1. Environmental context of Maratha source creation 2. Sustainable preservation of Maratha historical records	1. Authenticity and reliability of Maratha sources 2. Critical evaluation of source material	1. Understanding social and cultural context of sources 2. Recognizing human experiences and perspectives in Maratha
			2. Polity under the Marathas	1. Women's participation in Maratha governance 2. Gender roles in Maratha political hierarchy	1. Environmental impact of Maratha military campaigns 2. Sustainable resource management in Maratha administration	1. Objectivity in interpreting Maratha political decisions 2. Contextualization of Maratha governance structures	1. Understanding social justice and equality in Maratha polity 2. Recognizing human rights and dignity in Maratha governance
			3. Economic condition	1. Gender disparities in economic opportunities 2. Women's role in Maratha economy and trade	1. Environmental impact of Maratha economic activities 2. Sustainable agricultural practices during Maratha rule	1. Accurate representation of economic data and trends 2. Contextualization of economic policies	1. Understanding economic inequality and social justice 2. Recognizing human dignity and well-being in economic development
			4. Social condition	1. Gender roles 2. Women's status	1. Environmental impact 2. Sustainable practices	1. Objectivity 2. Contextualization	1. Social justice 2. Human dignity
		PAPER NO. XVI
B.A. III	VI	Methods and Application of History	1. Archival Sources	1. Gender bias in archival records 2. Representation of women in archives	1. Environmental impact of archival preservation 2. Sustainable archival practices	1. Authenticity of archival sources 2. Contextualization of archival records	1. Understanding historical perspectives 2. Recognizing human experiences in archives
			2. Recent Trends in History	1. Gendered perspectives 2. Women's history	1. Environmental history 2. Climate change	1. Digital ethics 2. Objectivity	1. Human rights 2. Cultural diversity
			3. Museology	1. Gender representation 2. Women's roles	1. Sustainable practices 2. Conservation	1. Authenticity 2. Ethical curation	1. Cultural preservation 2. Community engagement
			4. Understanding Heritage Tourism	1. Gendered experiences 2. Women's roles	1. Sustainable practices 2. Environmental impact	1. Authentic representation 2. Responsible management	1. Cultural sensitivity 2. Community benefits

Signature
HEAD,
Department of History,
D.K.A.S.C. College,
Ichalkaranji.